One Love Devotional Times
#SeekTheMostHigh - Camp 2017

Write names and prayer requests of some of the people with you this week at camp.

Dear 1L Devotional Student,

Get ready for an amazing week! During the 31 years of my life, time attending and serving at camps has been one of the biggest game-changers to my walk with Jesus.

God used a camp in Ohio after my 10th grade year of High School to teach me to stop focusing on imperfect people and start focusing on the Perfect God. After 9th grade, my bride, Nicole Haunani Marburger, was lost in religion, but she attended a Maui youth camp and learned to “set her mind on things above” (Colossians 3).

In 2005, while serving as a Youth Intern at Putnam after my Freshman year of college, God greatly used a camp to shape my faith. I will never forget learning to laugh with new friends, play in God’s creation, and worship the Most High in new ways because of camp.

We at One Love Skate are grateful to share this week with you during your morning devotional time, and we trust these One Love Devotionals will be transformational not only in your life, but in the lives of those you love as you #SeekTheMostHigh long after the “camp high” is gone.

Stoked for you to have a great week, and we look forward to hearing what develops when you return as you “Know the Love” and “Be the Love” to live the 1L of Jesus everywhere He takes you.

In the One Love of Jesus (1 John 4:9),

Read Isaiah 55:1-13

2 - #WYMUDGUFU - ↑ Fess Up. ↓ Forgive Others.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. - 1 John 1:9

1.) Pray and ask God to make you aware of any imperfections in your spiritual life. Ask him to bring to mind specific sins that you have committed against Him and against other people.

Fess up without minimizing or blaming anything or one.

2.) Ask God to bring to mind anyone who you need to apologize to. Ask Him to give you the power to make things right through repentance and a conversation.

"Two twin brothers grew up together, and in high school they chose different paths. The older brother pursued academic excellence and became a judge. The other chose the wrong friends, got involved in drugs and a life of crime. His choices one day caught up with him and in an attempted robbery, he shot and killed an innocent person. He ended up standing trial. His own brother was the judge, and the jury found him guilty of first degree murder. His brother, the judge, was forced to sentence him to the death penalty. During his transportation to prison, he managed to escape and ran to Mexico. While in Mexico, he saw on the news that he was caught and quickly put to death.

He realized that his older twin brother had switched his identity and turned himself in. His brother, who had done no wrong and lived his life for the good of others and became a judge, had taken his sentence of death and paid for the murder that he committed. The younger brother was overcome with guilt and turned himself in. He explained that they killed the wrong person. The court told him that there was a law called "Double Jeopardy" that didn't allow two people to be charged for the same crime. Because his brother had died for the murder he committed, they could not kill him as well. He was a free man. He realized that he received a second chance but only because his brother paid for it with his life. He vowed to change his ways and live a life that was worthy of the sacrifice his brother had made for him."

- An Illustration of Grace by Jonavan Asato from an E-mail Sent 6/6/17

3.) Say a prayer to thank God for dying in our place to forgive us and rising to set us free.

4.) Because Jesus forgives you, ask God to bring people to mind who you need to forgive.

Write a prayer to God thanking Him for what he showed you in devotions today.

Pray out loud quietly for a few minutes, and close with this –
Jesus, thank You for allowing me to receive Your One Love. Please equip me with Your power to love You and love people! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in[a] the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

- Matthew 28:18-20

Who is "steering" and teaching you? _____ Who are your steering? _____

4 - #GodTheBuilder - ↑ He Must Increase. ↓ I Must Decrease.

*Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.
It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep.*

Psalm 127:1-2

Read Psalm 127:1-2 at least three times, and pray for God to show you new insights.

Someone once said:
"Only one life, will soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last."

Pray and ask God to reveal something you are investing in with your life that will have significance for eternity?

Write what God shows you are of eternal significance: _____

Action Item - Memorize today's 1L Core Values with their verses. Write out first four core values and verses. Say and listen to first four core values with a friend.

Wednesday - One Love Core Values 5, 6, & 7 (30 Minutes)

5 - #1LConvos - ↑ Talk to God About People. ↓ Talk to People about God.

And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people."-Luke 24:19

Read Luke 24:13-23

As Jesus walked along the road after rising from the dead, he was willing to ask questions and listen instead of just making statements about what he believed.

In the book Questioning Evangelism, Randy Newman writes "More and more we should hold back our answer, and with a question, pave the way to receptivity."

As we prayerfully use the two 1L questions God often opens the door for great conversations:

From your heart, write answers to the two 1L Conversations:

1.) What is One Love to you?

2.) Who is Jesus to you?

6 - #LiveOneLove - ↑ Know the Love. ↓ Be The Love.

In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.

1 John 4:9

Pray ask God to show you how 1 John 4:9 applies to your life personally.
Spend time memorizing Luke 24:19 and 1 John 4:9. Then continue to 1L Value 7.

7 - #OneLoveToTheNations - ↑ Worship the King of All. ↓ Rep the King to All.

⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."-Acts 1:8

After reading Core Value 7 and saying it out loud. Read through the following story:

Opening Doors from "Our Daily Bread" - February 17, 2016

Charlie Sifford is an important name in American sports. He became the first African-American playing member of the Professional Golfers Association (PGA) Tour, joining a sport that, until 1961, had a "whites only" clause in its by-laws. Enduring racial injustice and harassment, Sifford earned his place at the game's highest level, won two tournaments, and in 2004 was the first African-American inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Charlie Sifford opened the doors of professional golf for players of all ethnicities. Opening doors is also a theme at the heart of the gospel mission. Jesus said, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matt. 28:19-20). Jesus' work on the cross opened the way to the Father for everyone. The word nations (v. 19) is from the Greek word ethnos, which is also the source of the word ethnic. In other words, "Go and make disciples of all ethnicities." Jesus' work on the cross opened the way to the Father for everyone. Now we have the privilege of caring for others as God has cared for us. We can open the door for someone who never dreamed they'd be welcomed personally into the house and family of God. Lord, help me to be sensitive to others I meet today. Give me the words to tell others about You. Jesus opened the doors of salvation to all who will believe.

Write out and work on memorizing today's 3 Core Values and Verses. Ask God to help you do these values by the power of His Holy Spirit.

Action Item:

- In groups of 3 or 4 max, go have 1L Conversations with at least 2 Friends and 1 Stranger.
- Tell a leader the names of the people you talked with and what their answers were.

THURSDAY - One Love Core Values 8 & 9 (30 Minutes)

8 - #ShoulderToShoulder - ↑ Be One With God.
↓ Be One With Others.

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.- Philippians 1:3-5

Read and pray through Value 8 and Philippians 1:3-5.

Are you one with God? Our sins can separate us from God and hurt our relationship with Him and with others, but Jesus' death and resurrection provide a right relationship with God that gives us the grace to love God and love people.

Are there sins you need to confess today on this last full day of camp?

Ask God to help you "throw off" weights of sin that entangle you. Freely receive his forgiveness today, and forgive those who have sinned against you.

When we have a right relationship with God, He helps us have right relationships with others.

Read the "One Love Anthem," and ask God to reveal what He wants for your life.

How are you called to be: "Shoulder to shoulder with soldiers for God's Kingdom?"

At camp today? _____

When you return home tomorrow? _____

Next week? _____

9 - #OnMission - ↑ Live in Jesus. ↓ Go into all the World.

I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your

We are praying that many people will sing this 1L anthem in their own language with their own style to God's Glory:

ONE LOVE ANTHEM

WE WANNA BE-
SHOULDER TO SHOULDER WITH SOLDIERS FOR YOUR KINGDOM, REPRESENTING YOU, KING JESUS, A SLAVE TO YOUR FREEDOM.

IN YOU AND THIS WORLD; OF YOU, NOT THIS WORLD. LIVIN' SOLELY FOR YOUR GLORY PROCLAIMING YOUR KINGDOM.

PROCLAIMING ONE LOVE – THE LOVE OF A PERFECT JUDGE.
A RIGHTEOUS, HOLY GOD, WHOSE JUSTICE WON'T BUDGE.

BUT WHO MADE A WAY TO REDEEM THE OBSCENE BY CRUSHING JESUS CHRIST ON CALVARY'S TREE.

THAT BECAUSE OF GRACE ALONE THROUGH FAITH ALONE IN JESUS CHRIST ALONE,

GOD'S JUSTICE IS SATISFIED BY JESUS' PERFECT LIFE SO THAT WE CAN DIE TO SIN AND LIVE IN CHRIST.
